A WORD FROM PASTOR CHARLIE

Budget for a New Year

On Sunday, January 30th, we presented our proposed budget for the 2022-23 fiscal year. In the last year, we have seen God richly provide through the members of our church to give generously to meet our budget and give above and beyond to missions and building needs. Let me first say, thank you for your willingness to give. As we approach a new budget year, I want you to know several things about how our leadership approaches budgeting.

First, we take stewarding God's money seriously. We do not want to be wasteful with our resources but also don't want to bury them and hide them for a rainy day. We strive to strike a balance, using our resources as needed to accomplish God's mission through First Moore, while also having reserves for future needs God might have for us. All in all, we know we will give an account to the Lord and want to be found faithful. We view every dollar as a ministry dollar. Each is used in some capacity to advance the Gospel and make disciples. From building to personnel to missions, each has a ministry impact.

Second, we are going to fund where God is at work. Budgeting means we are doing our best to predict, for the next year, where our resources will be best spent. However, we are not God. If He chooses to be at work in a certain area, we want to make sure we are prepared to meet Him there. This means that while our budget is important, it is a guide, but not the ruler of our finances. Resources will be used to build His kingdom. Finally, We expect the body to support the mission. Each person who calls First Moore home is expected to give as the Lord requires, to support and fund the work of the local church. We cannot all give the same amount, but we are all called to give accordingly. Faithfulness, generosity, and cheerfulness should be standards we each use for supporting Kingdom Work. Please join me as we work to build the Kingdom of God here on earth as it is in heaven.

For His glory and your joy,
Pastor Charlie
